

SUPERNATURAL

Supernatural Week #1: Introduction

May 27, 2018 ~ Psalm 19:1-4; Romans 1:20

With the supernatural, Christianity _____.

Without the supernatural...

1. ...there is no _____.
2. ...there are no _____.
3. ...Jesus' _____ doesn't _____ the _____ for _____.
4. ...there is no _____.

Four of God's characteristics that point to the existence of the supernatural

1. God is _____.
2. God is _____.
3. God is _____.
4. God is _____.

Three arguments for the existence of God (Note: Answers will come from the videos.)

1. The cosmological argument (<https://youtu.be/6CulBuMCLg0>)
 - Whatever begins to exist has a _____.

- The _____ began to exist.
 - Therefore, the _____ has a _____.
2. Moral argument (<https://youtu.be/OxiAikEk2vU>)
- If God does not exist, _____ moral values do not exist.
 - If there is no God, all we're left with is one person's viewpoint which is no more valid than anyone else's viewpoint.
3. Ontological argument (<https://youtu.be/xBmAKCvWl74>)
- God is a _____ Great being.
 - If something were _____ than God, then that being would be God.
 - A maximally great being must be all-powerful, all-knowing, and morally perfect in every possible world.

Think about / Apply it

Read Psalm 19:1-4 and Romans 1:20

In your journal...

- Summarize these verses in your own words.
- Thoughtfully and deeply answer these questions and talk about them with a friend.
 - If God exists, then...
 - If God is eternal, then...
 - If God is all-knowing, then...
 - If God is present everywhere, then...
 - If God is all-powerful, then...
 - If these facts are true, what hope do they give me?
 - If these facts are true, what is troublesome about them?
